

What Does Your “Ideal” Class Look Like?

What might you see, hear, and feel when you open the door to your ideal classroom? Be as specific as you can. Which of these ideal characteristics do you think are universal to all teachers? Which are the hardest to achieve? Which apply only to your style of teaching? Which do you already see in your own classroom, and which would you like to see more of? Start your lists below. Continue to add to the list as you go through the experiences in this book.

WHAT WE MIGHT SEE:

WHAT WE MIGHT HEAR:

WHAT WE MIGHT FEEL:

BONUS! WHAT WE MIGHT SMELL (LET'S AVOID TASTING, SHALL WE?)
